

Secretary and Mrs. Lansing Guests At Treadway Dinner Party

The Secretary of State and Mrs. Lansing were the guests in whose honor Representative Allen L. Treadway, of Massachusetts, entertained at dinner last evening at the Graton. The guests included Assistant Secretary of State and Mrs. William Phillips, Assistant Secretary of the Treasury and Mrs. Andrew J. Peters, Senator and Mrs. John W. Weeks, Mrs. William Murray Chase, Miss Mabel Boardman, Representative and Mrs. Samuel E. Wainwright, Representative and Mrs. John Jacob Rogers, Representative and Mrs. John D. Long, Representative and Mrs. Richard F. Phelan, Representative and Mrs. Richard Olney, Mrs. George T. Merritt, of Stockbridge, Representative William S. Greene, Representative James J. Gullivan, and Mr. Eaton L. Treadway, one of the hosts, who is a student at Harvard.

The Counselor of the State Department and Mrs. Frank Lyon Polk were hosts at dinner last evening, entertaining in compliment to the Japanese Ambassador, Mr. Maruo Sato. Among the guests invited to meet him were the Secretary of Commerce and Mrs. Redfield.

The Secretary of War and Mrs. Baker were the guests of honor at a dinner last evening at the residence of the Secretary of the Smithsonian Institute and Mrs. Charles D. Walcott. Covers were laid for sixteen.

One of the most delightfully distinctive banquets of several seasons was the dinner given last evening by Dr. and Mrs. Nevill Monroe Hopkins to celebrate the twentieth anniversary of the marriage of the couple. The guests at the dinner and additional guests were invited for the dancing which followed, the company, including a number of young people in compliment to Dr. and Mrs. Hopkins, including Miss Anne Hopkins.

The house was decorated with huge yellow lanterns, the entire scheme being suggestive of Chinese and a stringed orchestra played throughout the evening. The dinner was served in the library at long tables decorated with yellow ribbons and a yellow balloon fastened to a jade bracelet marked each place. The waiters wore Chinese costumes.

Following the dinner and preceding the dancing, a vaudeville program was given with motion pictures. The guests purchased their tickets for the performance at a box office erected for the occasion. A speaking contest and a dragon raid offered further entertainment.

Capt. and Mrs. Theodore Baldwin and Miss Judge will entertain at dinner tomorrow in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Julia K. Borchers, who will arrive at Washington today for a visit of several days.

Mrs. James Pryor Tavin and Miss Mattie Marshall will be at home Monday afternoon for the first time this season, and will receive the following Mondays in January.

The Swiss Minister and Mme. Ritter will have as their guests for the weekend Mr. and Mrs. Kaufmann, of Boston, who will arrive at Washington today.

The Assistant Secretary of War and Mrs. Ingraham will entertain for Portland, Me. They will return to Washington next Thursday.

Mrs. Benson, wife of Rear Admiral William S. Benson, received yesterday afternoon. Mrs. J. C. Hodgson and Mrs. John A. Lejeune presided at the tea table.

Mrs. Fred DeBett entertained the Friday Breakfast Club yesterday at her home in G Street, going later with her guests to the Congressional Club for the regular Friday afternoon meeting of the club. Mrs. Bennett's guests were Mrs. Charles E. Townsend, Mrs. Miles Poinsett, Mr. William Hughes, Mrs. James A. Reed, Jr., Dr. Tracy Shackelford, Mrs. William E. Fife, Mrs. John H. May, Mr. William J. Green, Mrs. Julius Kahn, Mrs. Charles Dillon, Mrs. Joseph J. Russell and Mr. Thomas Stubbins.

A well and delightful entertainment was given last evening by the Sons of Confederate Veterans in the ball room of the Raleigh. It was termed a Twelfth Night dance and the details of the function were in harmony with the old English celebration of the Christmas festival. Pine boughs and holly were used in decorations of the ball room; festoons of evergreen hung from the ceiling and partially veiled the walls, and masses of greenery screened the balcony where an orchestra played for the evening. Favors, such as are used at ball games, were given away with champagne and a buffet supper was served during the evening.

The guests were received by Mr. Olin Brenizer, matron of honor, assisted by Miss Suzanne Chase, sponsor, and Miss Olive Plant, maid of honor.

Among those present were Miss Dorothy Mason, Miss Elizabeth Chase, Miss Jane Gregory, Miss Grace Overman, Miss Elizabeth Shumate, Miss Helen Bridget, Miss Helen Plant, Miss Martha Clark, Miss Letitia Southgate, Miss Clara Kingsbury, Miss Elizabeth Kingsbury, Miss Ethel Brockman, Miss Josie Brockman, Miss Nell Rose Baggett, Miss Pansie Wilson, Miss Alice Theobald, Miss Margaret Young, Miss Mabelle Small, Miss Virginia Hereford, Miss Thelma Smith, Miss Harriet Pitts, Miss Holland Pitts, Miss Grace Reed, Miss Susie Keel, Miss Mary Boyd, Miss Elizabeth Boyd, Miss Vida Ford, Miss Virginia Wilson, Miss Dorothy Chandler, Mrs. J. C. Stoddard, Miss Harriet Clarke, Miss Molly Hamby, Miss Em. Hamby, Miss Caroline Flanner, Miss Mabelle Michener, Miss Ardath McCormick, Miss Sarah Daniel, Miss Ruth Daniel, Miss Elwood Seal, Mrs. George Owens, Miss Selma McMillen and Miss Helen Claxton, Mr. E. A. Brand, Mr. Benjamin Estopinal, Mr. Robert Watson, Mr. R. J. Morrison, Mr. Hugh Brewster, Mr. Elwood Seal, Mr. Benjamin F. Butler, Mr. C. H. Ball, Mr. T. Stuart Murray, Mr. R. O. Burton, Mr. Sanford Covington, Mr. M. J. Smith, Mr. James U. McCormick, Mr. John D.

Representative and Mrs. Homer P. Snyder, of New York, are at the Willard, where they have taken an apartment for the season.

Mrs. John Franklin Jameson will be at home today for the first time this season and will receive again on January 20 and 27.

Mrs. W. Thompson Burch will be hostess today at the first of the regular weekly "at home" of the Congressional Union for Women Suffrage. The following Saturday Mrs. William Kent will do the honors, and Cameron House will be open every Saturday afternoon through the season from 4 to 6 o'clock.

Mrs. William T. Tarrent entertained informally at bridge yesterday afternoon at her apartment in the Decatur.

Representative and Mrs. D. A. Hollingsworth, of Ohio, are at the Willard for the winter.

Mrs. Thomas Gale and Mrs. Ridley McLean were at home yesterday afternoon, assisted by Mrs. George Barnett, Mrs. Leigh Palmer, and Mrs. W. W. Gaibraith.

Miss Sadie Plenberg and Miss Sadie Reiber, both of New York City, are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Rudy, at their apartments at the Calvo.

Mr. Chester Bird, well-known in local bowling circles, announced his engagement to Miss Evelyn Fones, yesterday evening at the Raleigh Hotel, when a banquet was given to him by bowlers of the Government Printing Office. The music was furnished by an orchestra. The guests were: Messrs. Ralph Murdoch, James Roche, Bernard Douglas, Glenn Wolstenholme, and Wallace Cousins; Misses Grace Darling, Louise Schuman, Elizabeth Browning, Mildred Baker and Mary Bauer; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Henry, Mr. and Mrs. George Abendschlen and the parents of the young couple.

Mr. William H. Langhorne, of Albemarle County, Va., came to Washington yesterday and is at the Willard.

Mr. N. C. Squires, of Greenwich, Conn., is spending some time in Washington and is stopping at the Shoreham.

Mrs. F. H. Bratton, accompanied by Miss Antonette Bratton, of Cleveland, is visiting in Washington and is at the Shoreham.

Mr. and Mrs. H. F. White, of Chicago, are in Washington for a stay of some days and are stopping at the Shoreham. Other recent arrivals there are Mr. H. C. Lewis, of New York, and Mrs. F. L. Denny, of Warrenton.

Mrs. Albert L. Mills has returned from visiting her daughter, Mrs. E. P. Lawson, at Fort Oglethorpe, Georgia, and is established in her apartment at the St. Nicholas, 222 California street.

Mrs. Archibald Gracie gave a luncheon yesterday at her residence in Sixteenth Street, in compliment to Miss Olive Speckard. The table was a masterpiece of red roses. The guests included the Cuban Minister and Mme. de Cespedes, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Henry Butler, Mrs. Joseph T. Thropp, Miss Ramona Lefevre, Mrs. Edith Temple Gracie, Mr. John Barrett, Mr. J. E. Lefevre, of the Panama Legion; Baron Castille, Mr. William E. Fowler and Mr. J. Henry Smythe, Jr., of New York.

Mrs. Mary Schluter entertained at luncheon yesterday at Rauscher's. The guests, twenty-six in number, were seated at one large, round table adorned with pink roses and white lilies combined with Southern smilax.

Mrs. J. K. Ohi and Miss Joan Ohi will be at home this afternoon from 4 to 7 o'clock at their apartment in the Farnborough.

Mrs. John W. Davis, wife of the Solicitor General, entertained at a box party at the Russian Symphony Orchestra concert yesterday afternoon for her daughter, Miss Julia Davis. The other guests were Miss Natalie Dulles, Miss Lella Gordon, Miss Anna Hamlin, Miss Katherine McCoy and Miss Grace Beach.

Mr. and Mrs. Gibson Fahnestock gave a dinner party last evening at the Belvedere Hotel before the Baltimore assembly in honor of Mrs. Fahnestock's sister, Mrs. J. C. Ohi, who is visiting in Washington. The guests included Mr. and Mrs. Fred Eldridge, of New York, whose marriage will take place in February. Mr. and Mrs. Fahnestock will give another dinner at Baltimore Monday before the assembly in compliment to their daughter, Miss Margaret Fahnestock.

Mrs. Frank Reeside and Miss Lois Reeside will be at home this afternoon and again on January 20.

Capt. Charles J. Ferris, Field Artillery, U. S. A., entertained Thursday evening at the dinner-dance at the Army and Navy Club, having as his guests Maj. and Mrs. Dan T. Moore, U. S. A.; Maj. and Mrs. Ernest D. Scott, U. S. A.; Miss Helen Watson and Maj. Joseph H. Heller.

Commander Frank Ridgely, U. S. N., and Mrs. Ridgely, who are passing through Washington, are at the Willard for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Lombard entertained informally at luncheon yesterday in honor of Mr. Jules Bois, the noted French author and writer. Mr. Bois addressed a distinguished audience yesterday afternoon at the Alliance Francaise, on "The French Woman During Peace and During the War."

Among those present were Madame Jusserand, wife of the French Ambassador, the Italian Ambassador and the Countess di Celleri, and other diplomats.

Miss Guadelupe Sylvestre, the talented Filipino girl, will give a piano recital at the Arts' Club, 2017 street, tomorrow evening. Her program will include, prelude, Chopin; Impromptu (last); Chopin; Clair de Lune; De Bussy; concert suite, McDowell; tarantella, Liszt; allegro de concerti, Granados. Through these selections, Miss Sylvestre will interpolate native Filipino melodies.

Mr. Jules Bois, of Paris, the noted French journalist and man of letters, who is traveling in this country, is stopping at the Willard during his stay in Washington.

The first of the Friday evening dances, which were inaugurated two seasons ago, was given last evening at the Willard from 10 until 2 o'clock. The dances are under the patronage of Mr. Franklin K. Lane, Secretary of the Interior; Mr. Franklin D. Roosevelt, Assistant Secretary of the Navy; Maj. Gen. Barnett, U. S. A.; Col. Robert M. Thompson, Mr. Gibson Fahnestock, Mr. Montgomery Blair, Mr. Charles C. Glover, and Dr. William Holland Wilmer.

Miss Julia Wood, who arranged the series, received the guests. The ballroom was elaborately decorated and supper was served during the evening.

Mr. Frank Munsey, of New York, is spending a few days here. He arrived yesterday and is at the Willard.

Miss Caroline Nash gave a dinner party last evening in compliment to her house guests, Miss Anita Sanders and Miss Estelle Sanders, of Philadelphia, who arrived in Washington yesterday afternoon. Miss Nash took her guests later to the Friday evening dance at the Willard.

Lieut. Reed M. Fawell, U. S. N., attached to the radio station, will give a talk on radio telegraphy this afternoon at 3 o'clock at the Theodore Bailey Myers Mason House, 1096 Twentieth street, before the School for Preparedness. This talk will be for the benefit of the radio club. All friends of the school are invited.

Representative and Mrs. Homer P. Snyder, of New York, are at the Willard, where they have taken an apartment for the season.

Mrs. John Franklin Jameson will be at home today for the first time this season and will receive again on January 20 and 27.

Mrs. W. Thompson Burch will be hostess today at the first of the regular weekly "at home" of the Congressional Union for Women Suffrage. The following Saturday Mrs. William Kent will do the honors, and Cameron House will be open every Saturday afternoon through the season from 4 to 6 o'clock.

Mrs. William T. Tarrent entertained informally at bridge yesterday afternoon at her apartment in the Decatur.

Representative and Mrs. D. A. Hollingsworth, of Ohio, are at the Willard for the winter.

Mrs. Thomas Gale and Mrs. Ridley McLean were at home yesterday afternoon, assisted by Mrs. George Barnett, Mrs. Leigh Palmer, and Mrs. W. W. Gaibraith.

Miss Sadie Plenberg and Miss Sadie Reiber, both of New York City, are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Rudy, at their apartments at the Calvo.

Mr. Chester Bird, well-known in local bowling circles, announced his engagement to Miss Evelyn Fones, yesterday evening at the Raleigh Hotel, when a banquet was given to him by bowlers of the Government Printing Office. The music was furnished by an orchestra. The guests were: Messrs. Ralph Murdoch, James Roche, Bernard Douglas, Glenn Wolstenholme, and Wallace Cousins; Misses Grace Darling, Louise Schuman, Elizabeth Browning, Mildred Baker and Mary Bauer; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Henry, Mr. and Mrs. George Abendschlen and the parents of the young couple.

Mr. William H. Langhorne, of Albemarle County, Va., came to Washington yesterday and is at the Willard.

Mr. N. C. Squires, of Greenwich, Conn., is spending some time in Washington and is stopping at the Shoreham.

Mrs. F. H. Bratton, accompanied by Miss Antonette Bratton, of Cleveland, is visiting in Washington and is at the Shoreham.

Mr. and Mrs. H. F. White, of Chicago, are in Washington for a stay of some days and are stopping at the Shoreham. Other recent arrivals there are Mr. H. C. Lewis, of New York, and Mrs. F. L. Denny, of Warrenton.

Mrs. Albert L. Mills has returned from visiting her daughter, Mrs. E. P. Lawson, at Fort Oglethorpe, Georgia, and is established in her apartment at the St. Nicholas, 222 California street.

Mrs. Archibald Gracie gave a luncheon yesterday at her residence in Sixteenth Street, in compliment to Miss Olive Speckard. The table was a masterpiece of red roses. The guests included the Cuban Minister and Mme. de Cespedes, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Henry Butler, Mrs. Joseph T. Thropp, Miss Ramona Lefevre, Mrs. Edith Temple Gracie, Mr. John Barrett, Mr. J. E. Lefevre, of the Panama Legion; Baron Castille, Mr. William E. Fowler and Mr. J. Henry Smythe, Jr., of New York.

Mrs. Mary Schluter entertained at luncheon yesterday at Rauscher's. The guests, twenty-six in number, were seated at one large, round table adorned with pink roses and white lilies combined with Southern smilax.

Mrs. J. K. Ohi and Miss Joan Ohi will be at home this afternoon from 4 to 7 o'clock at their apartment in the Farnborough.

Mrs. John W. Davis, wife of the Solicitor General, entertained at a box party at the Russian Symphony Orchestra concert yesterday afternoon for her daughter, Miss Julia Davis. The other guests were Miss Natalie Dulles, Miss Lella Gordon, Miss Anna Hamlin, Miss Katherine McCoy and Miss Grace Beach.

Mr. and Mrs. Gibson Fahnestock gave a dinner party last evening at the Belvedere Hotel before the Baltimore assembly in honor of Mrs. Fahnestock's sister, Mrs. J. C. Ohi, who is visiting in Washington. The guests included Mr. and Mrs. Fred Eldridge, of New York, whose marriage will take place in February. Mr. and Mrs. Fahnestock will give another dinner at Baltimore Monday before the assembly in compliment to their daughter, Miss Margaret Fahnestock.

Mrs. Frank Reeside and Miss Lois Reeside will be at home this afternoon and again on January 20.

Capt. Charles J. Ferris, Field Artillery, U. S. A., entertained Thursday evening at the dinner-dance at the Army and Navy Club, having as his guests Maj. and Mrs. Dan T. Moore, U. S. A.; Maj. and Mrs. Ernest D. Scott, U. S. A.; Miss Helen Watson and Maj. Joseph H. Heller.

Commander Frank Ridgely, U. S. N., and Mrs. Ridgely, who are passing through Washington, are at the Willard for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Lombard entertained informally at luncheon yesterday in honor of Mr. Jules Bois, the noted French author and writer. Mr. Bois addressed a distinguished audience yesterday afternoon at the Alliance Francaise, on "The French Woman During Peace and During the War."

Among those present were Madame Jusserand, wife of the French Ambassador, the Italian Ambassador and the Countess di Celleri, and other diplomats.

Miss Guadelupe Sylvestre, the talented Filipino girl, will give a piano recital at the Arts' Club, 2017 street, tomorrow evening. Her program will include, prelude, Chopin; Impromptu (last); Chopin; Clair de Lune; De Bussy; concert suite, McDowell; tarantella, Liszt; allegro de concerti, Granados. Through these selections, Miss Sylvestre will interpolate native Filipino melodies.

Mr. Jules Bois, of Paris, the noted French journalist and man of letters, who is traveling in this country, is stopping at the Willard during his stay in Washington.

The first of the Friday evening dances, which were inaugurated two seasons ago, was given last evening at the Willard from 10 until 2 o'clock. The dances are under the patronage of Mr. Franklin K. Lane, Secretary of the Interior; Mr. Franklin D. Roosevelt, Assistant Secretary of the Navy; Maj. Gen. Barnett, U. S. A.; Col. Robert M. Thompson, Mr. Gibson Fahnestock, Mr. Montgomery Blair, Mr. Charles C. Glover, and Dr. William Holland Wilmer.

Miss Julia Wood, who arranged the series, received the guests. The ballroom was elaborately decorated and supper was served during the evening.

Mr. Frank Munsey, of New York, is spending a few days here. He arrived yesterday and is at the Willard.

Miss Caroline Nash gave a dinner party last evening in compliment to her house guests, Miss Anita Sanders and Miss Estelle Sanders, of Philadelphia, who arrived in Washington yesterday afternoon. Miss Nash took her guests later to the Friday evening dance at the Willard.

Lieut. Reed M. Fawell, U. S. N., attached to the radio station, will give a talk on radio telegraphy this afternoon at 3 o'clock at the Theodore Bailey Myers Mason House, 1096 Twentieth street, before the School for Preparedness. This talk will be for the benefit of the radio club. All friends of the school are invited.

Representative and Mrs. Homer P. Snyder, of New York, are at the Willard, where they have taken an apartment for the season.

Mrs. John Franklin Jameson will be at home today for the first time this season and will receive again on January 20 and 27.

Mrs. W. Thompson Burch will be hostess today at the first of the regular weekly "at home" of the Congressional Union for Women Suffrage. The following Saturday Mrs. William Kent will do the honors, and Cameron House will be open every Saturday afternoon through the season from 4 to 6 o'clock.

Mrs. William T. Tarrent entertained informally at bridge yesterday afternoon at her apartment in the Decatur.

Representative and Mrs. D. A. Hollingsworth, of Ohio, are at the Willard for the winter.

Mrs. Thomas Gale and Mrs. Ridley McLean were at home yesterday afternoon, assisted by Mrs. George Barnett, Mrs. Leigh Palmer, and Mrs. W. W. Gaibraith.

Miss Sadie Plenberg and Miss Sadie Reiber, both of New York City, are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Rudy, at their apartments at the Calvo.

Mr. Chester Bird, well-known in local bowling circles, announced his engagement to Miss Evelyn Fones, yesterday evening at the Raleigh Hotel, when a banquet was given to him by bowlers of the Government Printing Office. The music was furnished by an orchestra. The guests were: Messrs. Ralph Murdoch, James Roche, Bernard Douglas, Glenn Wolstenholme, and Wallace Cousins; Misses Grace Darling, Louise Schuman, Elizabeth Browning, Mildred Baker and Mary Bauer; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Henry, Mr. and Mrs. George Abendschlen and the parents of the young couple.

Mr. William H. Langhorne, of Albemarle County, Va., came to Washington yesterday and is at the Willard.

Mr. N. C. Squires, of Greenwich, Conn., is spending some time in Washington and is stopping at the Shoreham.

Mrs. F. H. Bratton, accompanied by Miss Antonette Bratton, of Cleveland, is visiting in Washington and is at the Shoreham.

Mr. and Mrs. H. F. White, of Chicago, are in Washington for a stay of some days and are stopping at the Shoreham. Other recent arrivals there are Mr. H. C. Lewis, of New York, and Mrs. F. L. Denny, of Warrenton.

Mrs. Albert L. Mills has returned from visiting her daughter, Mrs. E. P. Lawson, at Fort Oglethorpe, Georgia, and is established in her apartment at the St. Nicholas, 222 California street.

Mrs. Archibald Gracie gave a luncheon yesterday at her residence in Sixteenth Street, in compliment to Miss Olive Speckard. The table was a masterpiece of red roses. The guests included the Cuban Minister and Mme. de Cespedes, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Henry Butler, Mrs. Joseph T. Thropp, Miss Ramona Lefevre, Mrs. Edith Temple Gracie, Mr. John Barrett, Mr. J. E. Lefevre, of the Panama Legion; Baron Castille, Mr. William E. Fowler and Mr. J. Henry Smythe, Jr., of New York.

Mrs. Mary Schluter entertained at luncheon yesterday at Rauscher's. The guests, twenty-six in number, were seated at one large, round table adorned with pink roses and white lilies combined with Southern smilax.

Mrs. J. K. Ohi and Miss Joan Ohi will be at home this afternoon from 4 to 7 o'clock at their apartment in the Farnborough.

Mrs. John W. Davis, wife of the Solicitor General, entertained at a box party at the Russian Symphony Orchestra concert yesterday afternoon for her daughter, Miss Julia Davis. The other guests were Miss Natalie Dulles, Miss Lella Gordon, Miss Anna Hamlin, Miss Katherine McCoy and Miss Grace Beach.

Mr. and Mrs. Gibson Fahnestock gave a dinner party last evening at the Belvedere Hotel before the Baltimore assembly in honor of Mrs. Fahnestock's sister, Mrs. J. C. Ohi, who is visiting in Washington. The guests included Mr. and Mrs. Fred Eldridge, of New York, whose marriage will take place in February. Mr. and Mrs. Fahnestock will give another dinner at Baltimore Monday before the assembly in compliment to their daughter, Miss Margaret Fahnestock.

Mrs. Frank Reeside and Miss Lois Reeside will be at home this afternoon and again on January 20.

Capt. Charles J. Ferris, Field Artillery, U. S. A., entertained Thursday evening at the dinner-dance at the Army and Navy Club, having as his guests Maj. and Mrs. Dan T. Moore, U. S. A.; Maj. and Mrs. Ernest D. Scott, U. S. A.; Miss Helen Watson and Maj. Joseph H. Heller.

Commander Frank Ridgely, U. S. N., and Mrs. Ridgely, who are passing through Washington, are at the Willard for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Lombard entertained informally at luncheon yesterday in honor of Mr. Jules Bois, the noted French author and writer. Mr. Bois addressed a distinguished audience yesterday afternoon at the Alliance Francaise, on "The French Woman During Peace and During the War."

Among those present were Madame Jusserand, wife of the French Ambassador, the Italian Ambassador and the Countess di Celleri, and other diplomats.

Miss Guadelupe Sylvestre, the talented Filipino girl, will give a piano recital at the Arts' Club, 2017 street, tomorrow evening. Her program will include, prelude, Chopin; Impromptu (last); Chopin; Clair de Lune; De Bussy; concert suite, McDowell; tarantella, Liszt; allegro de concerti, Granados. Through these selections, Miss Sylvestre will interpolate native Filipino melodies.

Mr. Jules Bois, of Paris, the noted French journalist and man of letters, who is traveling in this country, is stopping at the Willard during his stay in Washington.

The first of the Friday evening dances, which were inaugurated two seasons ago, was given last evening at the Willard from 10 until 2 o'clock. The dances are under the patronage of Mr. Franklin K. Lane, Secretary of the Interior; Mr. Franklin D. Roosevelt, Assistant Secretary of the Navy; Maj. Gen. Barnett, U. S. A.; Col. Robert M. Thompson, Mr. Gibson Fahnestock, Mr. Montgomery Blair, Mr. Charles C. Glover, and Dr. William Holland Wilmer.

Miss Julia Wood, who arranged the series, received the guests. The ballroom was elaborately decorated and supper was served during the evening.

Mr. Frank Munsey, of New York, is spending a few days here. He arrived yesterday and is at the Willard.

Miss Caroline Nash gave a dinner party last evening in compliment to her house guests, Miss Anita Sanders and Miss Estelle Sanders, of Philadelphia, who arrived in Washington yesterday afternoon. Miss Nash took her guests later to the Friday evening dance at the Willard.

Lieut. Reed M. Fawell, U. S. N., attached to the radio station, will give a talk on radio telegraphy this afternoon at 3 o'clock at the Theodore Bailey Myers Mason House, 1096 Twentieth street, before the School for Preparedness. This talk will be for the benefit of the radio club. All friends of the school are invited.

Representative and Mrs. Homer P. Snyder, of New York, are at the Willard, where they have taken an apartment for the season.

Mrs. John Franklin Jameson will be at home today for the first time this season and will receive again on January 20 and 27.

Mrs. W. Thompson Burch will be hostess today at the first of the regular weekly "at home" of the Congressional Union for Women Suffrage. The following Saturday Mrs. William Kent will do the honors, and Cameron House will be open every Saturday afternoon through the season from 4 to 6 o'clock.

Mrs. William T. Tarrent entertained informally at bridge yesterday afternoon at her apartment in the Decatur.

Representative and Mrs. D. A. Hollingsworth, of Ohio, are at the Willard for the winter.

Mrs. Thomas Gale and Mrs. Ridley McLean were at home yesterday afternoon, assisted by Mrs. George Barnett, Mrs. Leigh Palmer, and Mrs. W. W. Gaibraith.

Miss Sadie Plenberg and Miss Sadie Reiber, both of New York City, are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Rudy, at their apartments at the Calvo.

Mr. Chester Bird, well-known in local bowling circles, announced his engagement to Miss Evelyn Fones, yesterday evening at the Raleigh Hotel, when a banquet was given to him by bowlers of the Government Printing Office. The music was furnished by an orchestra. The guests were: Messrs. Ralph Murdoch, James Roche, Bernard Douglas, Glenn Wolstenholme, and Wallace Cousins; Misses Grace Darling, Louise Schuman, Elizabeth Browning, Mildred Baker and Mary Bauer; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Henry, Mr. and Mrs. George Abendschlen and the parents of the young couple.

Mr. William H. Langhorne, of Albemarle County, Va., came to Washington yesterday and is at the Willard.

Mr. N. C. Squires, of Greenwich, Conn., is spending some time in Washington and is stopping at the Shoreham.

Mrs. F. H. Bratton, accompanied by Miss Antonette Bratton, of Cleveland, is visiting in Washington and is at the Shoreham.

Mr. and Mrs. H. F. White, of Chicago, are in Washington for a stay of some days and are stopping at the Shoreham. Other recent arrivals there are Mr. H. C. Lewis, of New York, and Mrs. F. L. Denny, of Warrenton.

Mrs. Albert L. Mills has returned from visiting her daughter, Mrs. E. P. Lawson, at Fort Oglethorpe, Georgia, and is established in her apartment at the St. Nicholas, 222 California street.

Mrs. Archibald Gracie gave a luncheon yesterday at her residence in Sixteenth Street, in compliment to Miss Olive Speckard. The table was a masterpiece of red roses. The guests included the Cuban Minister and Mme. de Cespedes, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Henry Butler, Mrs. Joseph T. Thropp, Miss Ramona Lefevre, Mrs. Edith Temple Gracie, Mr. John Barrett, Mr. J. E. Lefevre, of the Panama Legion; Baron Castille, Mr. William E. Fowler and Mr. J. Henry Smythe, Jr., of New York.

Mrs. Mary Schluter entertained at luncheon yesterday at Rauscher's. The guests, twenty-six in number, were seated at one large, round table adorned with pink roses and white lilies combined with Southern smilax.

Mrs. J. K. Ohi and Miss Joan Ohi will be at home this afternoon from 4 to 7 o'clock at their apartment in the Farnborough.

Mrs. John W. Davis, wife of the Solicitor General, entertained at a box party at the Russian Symphony Orchestra concert yesterday afternoon for her daughter, Miss Julia Davis. The other guests were Miss Natalie Dulles, Miss Lella Gordon, Miss Anna Hamlin, Miss Katherine McCoy and Miss Grace Beach.

Mr. and Mrs. Gibson Fahnestock gave a dinner party last evening at the Belvedere Hotel before the Baltimore assembly in honor of Mrs. Fahnestock's sister, Mrs. J. C. Ohi, who is visiting in Washington. The guests included Mr. and Mrs. Fred Eldridge, of New York, whose marriage will take place in February. Mr. and Mrs. Fahnestock will give another dinner at Baltimore Monday before the assembly in compliment to their daughter, Miss Margaret Fahnestock.

Mrs. Frank Reeside and Miss Lois Reeside will be at home this afternoon and again on January 20.

Capt. Charles J. Ferris, Field Artillery, U. S. A., entertained Thursday evening at the dinner-dance at the Army and Navy Club, having as his guests Maj. and Mrs. Dan T. Moore, U. S. A.; Maj. and Mrs. Ernest D. Scott, U. S. A.; Miss Helen Watson and Maj. Joseph H. Heller.

Commander Frank Ridgely, U. S. N., and Mrs. Ridgely, who are passing through Washington, are at the Willard for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Lombard entertained informally at luncheon yesterday in honor of Mr. Jules Bois, the noted French author and writer. Mr. Bois addressed a distinguished audience yesterday afternoon at the Alliance Francaise, on "The French Woman During Peace and During the War."

Among those present were Madame Jusserand, wife of the French Ambassador, the Italian Ambassador and the Countess di Celleri, and other diplomats.

Miss Guadelupe Sylvestre, the talented Filipino girl, will give a piano recital at the Arts' Club, 2017 street, tomorrow evening. Her program will include, prelude, Chopin; Impromptu (last); Chopin; Clair de Lune; De Bussy; concert suite, McDowell; tarantella, Liszt; allegro de concerti, Granados. Through these selections, Miss Sylvestre will interpolate native Filipino melodies.

Mr. Jules Bois, of Paris, the noted French journalist and man of letters, who